CORAM: D.B.BHOSALE, J.
DATED: 21ST FEBRUARY, 2007

P.C.:

. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. Mr.Suryawanshi, learned counsel for the respondents submits that the respondents created third party interest in the suit property long back and it was so stated in the written statement. He further submitted that despite such statement being made in the written statement, no steps were taken by the appellants-plaintiffs to add the purchasers as party-defendant in the suit or in the appeal. The statement of Mr.Suryawanshi has not been controverted by the advocate for the applicants. In the circumstances no interim relief can be granted at this stage hence the application stand disposed of.
